CLASS OF MEMBERSHIP:

PACO MEMBER (voting status - active or associate - to be determined by PACO Executive Board) and concurrent COLUMBUS BAR ASSOCIATE MEMBER (non-voting)

PACO STUDENT MEMBER (special student rate; non-voting) and concurrent COLUMBUS BAR ASSOCIATE MEMBER (non-voting)

Voting Rights: If you are not now but later become employed as a paralegal working under the direct supervision of an attorney and you wish to have voting rights in PACO, you must send a letter to the PACO Membership Director requesting the upgrade of your PACO voting status. Due to the discounted cost of student membership, no PACO voting status upgrades will be considered in the year of application for students who graduate and become employed as a paralegal working under the direct supervision of an attorney during that year without additional payment of $60 (if request is made between April 1 and June 30, final quarter of PACO's fiscal year, addition payment will be waived).

NOTE: Paralegals must be sponsored by an attorney member of the Columbus Bar Association. Without such sponsorship, Board will automatically deem such member as a non-voting member. If you are a student member, the sponsor may be your school administrator.
