10th District Court of Appeals

(cases from All Franklin County and State Government)

YOU elect 8 Judges
The Court hires 2 Magistrates

This court reviews decisions made in Franklin County trial courts (municipal, common pleas and probate) when one of the parties believes that the judge made a mistake in their case. This appellate court is the only one in the state that hears appeals from the Ohio Court of Claims that hears and determines all civil actions filed against the state of Ohio and its agencies.

The Supreme Court of Ohio

(at the Supreme Court, Judges are called Justices)

YOU elect 1 Chief Justice & 6 Justices

This court reviews important decisions of the 12 district courts of appeals in Ohio. They review all cases involving the death penalty, some cases involving violations of constitutional rights and cases where there are conflicting decisions between two or more Ohio appellate courts. They review the actions of certain administrative agencies, including the Public Utilities Commission and the Board of Tax Appeals. The Supreme Court supervises all of Ohio's courts, admits attorneys to the practice of law and may discipline attorneys and judges.
